

BIBLE COLLEGE SA

Position Vacant: Old Testament Lecturer

Bible College SA is an interdenominational provider of tertiary level education in evangelical Christian theology and ministry. The College is seeking to appoint a full time Old Testament Lecturer to the faculty who will have responsibility for teaching Old Testament courses to undergraduate and graduate students. The ideal applicant will have a PhD in Old Testament and solid Hebrew language skills, as well as experience in Christian pastoral ministry or ministry formation.

Interested parties can request the Job and Person Specification by emailing admin@biblecollege.sa.edu.au and applications should address the desired qualifications, skills, and experience as outlined in that document. They should also include a CV and contact details for three referees, with one being the applicant's current church pastor.

Remuneration is determined by the Bible College SA Enterprise Agreement and is at Level B4 of the Educational Services (Post Secondary) Award. Full conditions of employment are detailed in the current Bible College SA Enterprise Agreement.

Applications should be submitted before the close of business on Friday 27 October, 2017. Bible College SA reserves the right not to make an appointment.
